City-Annexation Petition Fails to Qualify

I regret to report that the petition to refer to a popular vote in the next general election Act 298, a 1971 city annexation measure which knocks out the annexation reform measure, Act 65 of 1969, has failed.

Paying back the help which certain Little Rockians and suburbanites gave me in my sales tax petition campaigns in 1955 and 1957, I undertook a personally-financed circulation campaign for their petition in Hempstead and Nevada counties, qualifying both for the statewide certification with a two-county total of more than 1,100 signatures.

However, when I took the local petitions into Secretary of State Kelly Bryant's office just before 4 p.m. last Friday the young Little Rock attorney directing the drive against Act 298 said he had a grand total of only 22,000 signatures, including the 1,100 I brought up from Hope—against a state-wide requirement of 37,000.

So the reform Act 65 of 1969, providing separate counts on city and suburban voting for annexation, is "out"—and we revert to the old system which puts city and rural votes under a single tabulation.

A system manifestly unfair to the rural areas—but that is now the law, as some foot-dragging suburbanites who let the petition campaigners down will find out the next time some land-hungry rural estate regardless how the to-be-annexed folks feel about it.

Driving with me to Little Rock for the petition filing was our Gene Allen, head cameraman, who had to meet his son Mickey, U.S. Navy, flying in from a Navy technical training center in Connecticut at 10 p.m. We killed time by eating a couple of suppers, seeing a movie, and then pushing through the Adams Field traffic jam to greet Mickey as he stepped off the American jet from New York. He'll be here for about a month, then leaves on assignment to Honolulu.

3 Burglaries Over Weekend
City police report three weekend burglaries. The first occurred Friday when a window of the Bud White Grocery, located at 5th and Laurel, was broken and $14 worth of cigarettes were taken through the window.

Hammer Tire and Appliance, 215 S. Walnut, was entered through a skylight during the weekend and a stereo tape player valued at $89.95 was taken. The theft was reported this morning.

Leo's Garage, 410 S. Walnut, was also entered and the soft drink and cigarette vending machines were broken into. The garage was entered through a window.

Launches Voting Project
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., announced Sunday that he has launched a project designed to register as many as possible of the 104,000 Arkansians between the ages of 18 and 21 to vote in the 1972 elections.

Pryor, honorary chairman of the project—"18-21," said Sunday he was inspired by the 180 persons, most of whom had been affected by the 26th amendment, attending the meeting.

Thousands of Horses to Be Vaccinated

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — All horses in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, New Mexico and Louisiana are to be vaccinated against a mosquito-carried disease that kills about half the horses it strikes.

A quarantine that was imposed on horses in Texas after the disease spread into the United States from Mexico and South America has been extended to the other four states, and the federal government has made $5 million and additional manpower available.

A regional emergency headquarters opens today in Houston to coordinate efforts in five states to fight the disease-Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis, or VEE.

Plans for the five-state program were developed Sunday at a meeting in Dallas of federal officials, state veterinarians and other animal health leaders from the states.

Copper Strike Ends, Others Continue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A tentative contract agreement has been reached between the Magma Copper Co., the largest independent copper producer, and seven striking unions, but walkouts continue in the nation's communications, rail and shipping industries.

No progress was reported Sunday in negotiations to end strikes against the Bell Telephone System, two railroads and West Coast shipping firms.

Announcement Sunday of the proposed three-year Magma contract was the first breakthrough in the 18-day nationwide copper strike that has shut down mines and smelters throughout the West and idled some 35,000 workers.

It calls for an average hourly wage increase of 92 cents, a 50 per cent increase in the pension program and an unlimited cost of living escalator clause. The latter had been a major issue in the bargaining.

Current averages wages range from $3.91 to $4.38 an hour. The Magma contract would affect about 3,000 workers.

A spokesman for the AFL-CIO United Steelworkers of America, largest of the seven unions, said talks would be held this week with Anaconda and Kennecott, the largest producers.

Magma is considered an independent firm because it has mines only in Arizona. The four largest producers have mines and operations in several states.

In the telephone strike, there was a marked decrease in reports of sabotage and vandalism as the walkout by 400,000 members of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America entered its sixth day.

Negotiations continued on both the national and regional levels over wages, fringe benefits and local issues. The current average hourly wage is $3.43. Service continued to be virtually normal.

Dillard Heads Ripon Society
NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Tom Dillard of Little Rock, a past president of the Young Republicans of Arkansas, was named temporary president of the state Ripon Society here Sunday.

Dillard said that a group of Republicans are attempting to establish a permanent society in Arkansas.

He said the society is a "progressive" Republican organization which studies governmental problems and supports GOP candidates who are endorsed by members of the society.

Pentagon Plans $2,000 Bonus to Re-enlisting Reserves, Guardsmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's manpower chief planned today to test congressional sentiment today on offering bonuses ranging over $2,000 for re-enlistment in the National Guard or Reserve.

Guard sources said Asst. Secretary of Defense Roger T. Kelly arranged for a secret session with a House Armed Services subcommittee to discuss formal proposals that may be included in the next defense budget in January.

Pentagon officials refused to provide details. But it is known both enlistment and re-enlistment bonuses are included in an "incentive package" designed to maintain the strength of the Guard and Reserve as draft calls go down.

The proposal is said to involve enlistment bonuses—only after the draft expires—averaging more than $500 and re-enlistment bonuses averaging more than $1,700.

Amounts would depend on the length of hitch and, in the case of re-enlistment bonus, on a man's military skill as well.

The top re-enlistment bonus, would total more than $2,000 for a six-year re-enlistment in the Guard or Reserve, sources

'Fair Trade' Liquor Law Eliminated
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The 21-year-old "fair trade" liquor law passed out of existence today, but liquor dealers say no general price cut is likely.

"There will not be, as most people have been led to believe, a general reduction across the board," said M. M. Davenport, owner of Warehouse Liquor Stores in Little Rock.

The law, adopted in 1949, had required a minimum markup of 13 per cent at the wholesale level and 30 per cent at the retail level.

The 1971 General Assembly approved a measure repealing the price-fixing law, effective today, and retailers and wholesalers now may charge prices lower than what would have been legal under the "fair trade" statute.

Al Warriner of Pine Bluff, immediate past president of the Arkansas Package Store Association, said he did not anticipate any "great change" in prices.

"Everybody will move cautiously," Davenport said.

Some dealers said lower prices might be charged from time to time on some brands offered as "specials," but they said this tactic might actually work against any general cut.

"We're just like everybody else," Davenport said. "Inflation got us."

Davenport and Warriner said they could lower their retail prices if they could but liquor more cheaply from wholesalers.

A spokesman for a Little Rock wholesale firm, who asked not to be named, said his company did not intend to change its prices to retailers in the foreseeable future.

He said prices could be reduced, though, if wholesalers could buy more cheaply from distilleries.

Retailers seemed to agree that any store that began to offer liquor at reduced prices across-the-board would soon face the prospect of business failure.

"Big cuts will put you out of business," Warriner said.

The law repealing the "fair trade" statute included a ban on advertisement of liquor prices. Some lawmakers criticized this provision, contending it would limit price competition that could be advantageous to the consumer.

Agnew Not Informed About Visited

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon gave Vice President Spiro T. Agnew no advance word of his plan to visit Communist China, says an informed White House source.

Agnew, according to the informant, was excluded from all advance planning and knew nothing of Nixon's dramatic move until Thursday night when the President publicly announced his intentions.

This may account for Agnew's refusal to comment when first contacted by newsmen about the announcement. The vice president was in Africa at the time on one of the final legs

on Visit to Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign envoys queued up to see Secretary of State William P. Rogers today for clues to how President Nixon's Peking trip may affect their countries.

Most concerned were Asian ambassadors from nations whose defenses are linked to the United States.

"Just what is the meaning of 'old friend'?" asked one Asian diplomat privately as he waited his turn on Rogers' overflowing appointments schedule.

Nixon used the term in his brief trip announcement Thursday, trying especially to reassure America's allies on the Communist mainland rim from South Korea to Thailand.

"Our action in seeking a new relationship with the People's Republic of China will not be at the expense of our old friends," Nixon said.

But the Asian allies want to know more as they assess how heavily they want to lean in the future on Washington commitments stemming from cold-war days when Peking was rated here as a militant threat to its non-Communist neighbors.

Nixon's journey is widely seen in Asian eyes as U.S. recognition of Red China as a big power, even though establishment of formal Washington-Peking diplomatic relations is still some time off.

Nationalist China's ambassador, James C.H. Shen, already has lodged a stiff protest with the State Department. He was among the half dozen or more Asians on Rogers' visitors list.

Expecting the heavy diplomatic traffic, Rogers canceled a speaking date in London tonight to give the briefings personally. He returned to Washington late Sunday with Nixon from San Clemente, Calif.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird, returning from a 17-day visit to Japan and South Korea, was asked about past statements that Communist China might become a nuclear blackball threat to its neighbors.

"We must maintain our realistic deterrent as we go forward with President Nixon's quest for peace," Laird told newsmen.

Rogers' questioners also hoped for some guidance on another major decision the State Department is slated to disclose shortly: what the United States will do about Peking's proposed entry into the United Nations.

Nixon's announcement he will visit Peking before next May has boosted momentum at the United Nations for admitting Red China this fall, even if it means kicking out Nationalist China.

Riot, Looting Hits City in California

OXNARD, Calif. (AP) — Riot-clad policemen and sheriff's deputies swept down the main street of the city's Mexican-American section early today to put down a disturbance during which stores were looted, a bank, school and pharmacy were fire-bombed and police and firemen were pelted with rocks.

Nineteen juveniles and 20 adults were arrested on various charges stemming from the disturbance which officials said involved 100 to 150 young persons.

The 47-man arresting force moved in about an hour after a smaller group of police and firemen were driven back and forced to withdraw from the area.

The violence began Sunday night after an announced antipolice rally in a park next to the school failed to materialize. Groups of youths began forming on the main street, Cooper Avenue.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott says the timing of President Nixon's visit to China indicates the United States will have no combat troops in Vietnam by May 1, 1972.

Going a step further, the Pennsylvania senator said Nixon's announcement he will visit Peking by next May implies possibly there would be no U.S. forces at all in Vietnam by that time, "except those necessary to carry out such agreements, as, hopefully, have been made."

"Do you think it is feasible that an American president can

Says Kennedy Out of Depth as President

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson says in an interview published in Life magazine that John F. Kennedy was "out of his depth" in the presidency.

The Life article, published Sunday, is a partial text of an interview Acheson gave the British Broadcasting Corp. It has not been televised yet.

"He did not have incisiveness and he was out of his depth where he was," Acheson said of the late president. "I hate to say this because I know it's going to be misunderstood, but his reputation is greater because of the tragedy of his death than it would have been if he had lived out two terms."

Acheson said Kennedy "did not seem to me to be in any sense a great man. I did not think he knew a great deal about any of the matters which it's desirable that a chief of state or a president of the United States should know about. He was not decisive."

When the interviewer, Kenneth Harris, said there was a "legend that he was a very decisive man indeed" during the Cuban missile crisis, Acheson replied, "Well, it is a legend, it is not the fact."

The former secretary of state, who served under Harry S. Truman, was sent to France by Kennedy to keep President Charles de Gaulle informed about the crisis.

Acheson, now a Washington lawyer, was also critical of the president's brother, the late Robert F. Kennedy, then attorney general.

Military Aid to Pakistan Under Study

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Government sources say President Nixon soon will have to face the question of military aid for Pakistan or find Congress has made the decision for him.

The administration has been studying the aid question for three months with no official word on a finding. In fact, sources say, Nixon's advisers are split among themselves on the politically and diplomatically touchy issue.

U.S. assistance—economic and military—officially is being "held in abeyance" with arms sales halted as of March 25, the date West Pakistani troops moved to crush the independence movement in the Eastern province.

Since then some ships have sailed for Pakistan carrying military equipment, mostly spare parts sold under licenses the State Department says were issued before March 25.

But even this relative trickle of equipment has brought on cries at home and abroad the administration is providing the means for West Pakistan to massacre the rebels.

This morality argument is among points advocated by those administration officials who favor the continuing hold on assistance, particularly arms aid.

They also point to diplomatic pitfalls if aid to Pakistan is resumed. A World Bank-led international consortium has recommended no more aid until the millions of East Pakistani refugees are allowed to return and "reasonable stability" is established.

And India is strongly opposed to American arms aid to the neighbor with which it has been at a near warlike state for years.

On the other hand, many administration experts maintain a cutoff of U.S. aid would drive Pakistan further into the arms of mainland China, which already provides it military aid. An American embargo would only cut whatever leverage the United States has to influence the government of President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan, these officials contend.

The depth of the domestic political problem facing Nixon was sounded last week when the House Foreign Affairs Committee voted to stop all aid to Pakistan, including the "plan-

Rockefeller Comments

on Agnew

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller, Republican national committeeman, says Vice President Spiro T. Agnew probably can have the GOP nomination for re-election if Agnew desires it.

Rockefeller said it was "too early in the game yet" for him to say whether President Nixon should keep Agnew as a running mate.

"He's doing an outstanding job," the former governor said of Agnew. "I've known him personally and I'm impressed with his ability and his calm."

Troop Cutback Held Up by Differences

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Differences within the Nixon administration are holding up American plans for a program of balanced East-West troop cuts in Central Europe.

U.S. officials are saying some authorities favor a general cutback of 10 per cent at the start while others are questioning the whole concept of reductions that could upset the balance of power. As a result the plans promised to the North Atlantic alliance — NATO — by early July will be about a month late.

The official expectation is that President Nixon's intervention will be needed to resolve the dispute which is likely to come before the National Security Council in the next few weeks.

Complex issues, with strategic and political implications, are involved, including the future of Berlin, East Germany's status, Soviet motives and security arrangements.

As informants representing the main schools of thought within the administration explained things, the lineup looks like this:

1. Some key authorities want the United States, and NATO, to stand by a 1968 offer to negotiate what the jargon calls "mutual balanced force reductions," or MBFR, with the Communist powers. The cuts would take place in Central Europe.

2. Other high-level Americans say monkeying around with force levels now could imperil the finely poised power balance built up so laboriously in post-war Europe between East and West. They say that power balance, resting on American nuclear strength, is the best way of preserving peace and any disturbance could jeopardize prospects to agree on Berlin, German affairs, limitation of strategic arms and other issues.

Complicating this philosophical tug-of-war between the diplomatic and strategic planners of the two sides is the mood of Congress.

New demands are building for reduction of the 300,000-strong U.S. garrison in Europe. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has complained publicly that the U.S. economy is not strong enough to continue shouldering so heavy a burden.

There is for the United States and NATO another major consideration.

Not long ago, after years of argument and education, the Americans finally got NATO to adopt the strategy of flexible response.

In unfancy terms this means U.S. allies agreed to depend, in the first place, on conventional power to repel an aggressor. If that fails they could use tactical nuclear weapons to push the attacker back. Ultimately, the full weight of Allied strategic nuclear power could be invoked.

But to be able to react so flexibly against an invader NATO had to accept the reality that more men and nonnuclear guns are needed. The NATO armies now are far below required levels.

Westmoreland Is Rotary Club Speaker

At the Hope Rotary Club luncheon meeting Friday, July 16 at the Town and Country E.H. Stewart presented the Rev. Jerry Westmoreland, associate pastor of the First United Methodist Church, in a program called "Just For Today."

The speaker discussed that precious commodity, Time, and expressed the hope that his listeners used it instead of abusing or misusing it. He, then, told ways that anyone can make the most of every day. They include improving the mind, being agreeable, looking one's best, and being courteous and considerate of others. He also said that we shouldn't try to improve anyone but ourselves. After lamenting the passion for hurry that everyone seems to have, he emphasized the need of doing good and being unafraid.

Dr. Sam Strong presided over the business meeting and welcomed three guests, Larry Covalencu of Omaha, Neb., Howard Sellers of Texarkana, and Sammy Strong.

Weekend Death Toll Soars to 10

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Multiple fatality accidents made Arkansas' weekend highway death count soar to ten. Three persons were killed in an accident Sunday night near Bentonville and an accident near Morrilton claimed four lives Saturday night.

The Associated Press weekend highway death count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

The State Police had not released the details of the Bentonville accident late Sunday, but said that seven persons had also been injured in a three-car crash on Arkansas 71 near Bentonville.

The names of the three victims had not been released.

Those killed in the car-truck crash near Morrilton Saturday were identified as Willie Bradford, 26, of Morrilton, the driver of the car; and Linda Davis, 13, Lee Davis, 16, and Patricia Davis, 14, all of Plummerville, who were passengers in the car.

The victims included: —Clyde Blount, 86, of Lake City, killed Saturday while driving a pickup truck which smashed into a Frisco freight train at a crossing on Arkansas 18 in Jonesboro.

—Edward Mason Tuggle, 21, of Springdale, found dead Saturday under a pickup truck on a dirt road in Benton County. Police said he apparently had been working on the truck and that it had rolled over on him, pinning him across the neck and shoulders.

—William Frank Rogers, 63, of Pocahontas, killed Saturday on U.S. 67 about four miles north of North Little Rock. His car, parked in a traffic lane, was hit from behind by a pickup truck, police said.

Furness Wants Male Replacement

NEW YORK (AP) — Betty Furness says her replacement as chairman of the state's Consumer Protection Board should be man—a "young lawyer type" who can deal with politicians.

She said such an individual's abilities would be valuable in dealing with business-oriented legislators. When she resigned from her position last week she said she was frustrated because legislators had failed to pass consumer protection legislation she advocated.

State Horse Vaccinations to Start Soon

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A federal official said today that immunization of Arkansas horses, mules and other equines against Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis (VEE) might be under way by Friday of this week. Dr. Paul Becton of the Agriculture Department office in Little Rock said the first shipment of an expected 100,000 doses of the vaccine probably will arrive by airplane at Little Rock on Wednesday or Thursday.

He estimated that the process of immunizing equine in Arkansas would take three or four weeks once the program is begun. In the most recent census, 88,000 equine were reported in Arkansas but some officials said the number might be twice that.

Becton spoke at a gathering of 23 representatives of federal and state agencies and animal health groups where plans for the immunization program were being made.

Becton is veterinarian in charge of the animal health division of the Agricultural Research Department of the USDA office in Little Rock.

He said official notice of a quarantine on Arkansas was expected soon from Washington as part of an attempt to create a "buffer zone" around Texas, which is the area known to be seriously infected. The buffer quarantine also will cover Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Texas already was under quarantine because of the outbreak of VEE in the area of the Rio Grande Valley and Gulf coast.

The vaccine was developed by the Defense Department at Ft. Detrick, Md., a primary depot in the Army's biological warfare system, Becton said.

Under a national emergency declared last week by Agriculture Secretary Clifford Hardin, the Agriculture Department will buy the serum from the Defense Department and distribute it to the states. The vaccine has been stored at a minus 20 degrees Fahrenheit the last five years, Becton said. He said that when the vaccine is received in the frozen state, it must be diluted go to China while there are any troops left in South Vietnam." Scott was asked Sunday on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

"I think that he could go if the reason for keeping some troops in South Vietnam is coupled with the prisoner-of-war issue at that time."

Scott said—as he often has—that he thinks Nixon has set a withdrawal plan but not a firm date for total U.S. pullout from Vietnam.

Under Nixon's announced withdrawal plan all but 184,000 of the U.S. contingent in Vietnam is due out by Dec. 1. The President's next timetable is expected to be announced in mid-November and could involve all the remaining force.

The closest Nixon has come to announcing a flat-out end to U.S. involvement in the war was his April 7 press conference statement: "In my campaign for the presidency, I pledged to end American involvement in this war. I am keeping that pledge. You should hold me accountable if I fail to do so."

Meanwhile, Rep. Paul N. McCloskey of California, who says he will challenge Nixon in next year's Republican primaries, said the President's visit to Peking could have a salutary effect on the Paris peace talks only if the Nixon administration drops its insistence on preserving the Thieu-Ky government in South Vietnam.

"I think if the President will abandon that ... negotiating position that we can settle the Vietnam war within 30 to 60 days," McCloskey said on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Another potential candidate for the White House, Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., told a Tampa, Fla., news conference he hopes communications with China will lead to a cease-fire in Vietnam and that Peking will be brought into the arms-limitation talks.

twice before it can be used and would last only 12 hours after the final dilution.

The logistics of timely distribution will be crucial to the success of the immunization program, he said.

The vaccine actually was developed for human use, but a task force worked in Mexico against a VEE outbreak in horses about six weeks ago, Becton said.

Trucial States to Federate

BEIRUT (AP) — Six of the seven Persian Gulf sheikdoms known as the Trucial States will federate to form the State of the Arab Emirates, Egypt's Middle East News Agency reports.

The new association will join Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharja, Ajman, Fujaira and Umm Al Qaywayn. They have been under British protection and influence for years, but Britain is withdrawing by the end of the year.

The Trucial States have an area of 32,000 square miles, a population of 200,000 and oil in Abu Dhabi. Their name comes from a truce negotiated in 1820 that provided British ships protection from pirates in the area.

The seventh Trucial State, Ras al Khaima, refused to join the federation because of a dispute over revenues and decision-making.

of a month-long around-the-world trip which took him away from the councils of government during final negotiations on an agreement for Nixon to visit Peking.

Agnew is known to have displeased the White House earlier this year when he described the visit of an American table-tennis team to Peking as a disaster for the United States and a propaganda victory for Red China.

Nixon set up separate meetings today with bipartisan leaders of Congress and Cabinet members to report on his diplomatic approaches to mainland China.

Returning Sunday night from a 12-day stay in California, the President was greeted by some 300 people at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., including representatives of the Cabinet and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The White House said the welcome was spontaneous.

With Nixon were Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, the presidential aide who secretly visited Peking July 9-11 to nail down a preliminary agreement with Premier Chou En-lai for Nixon's planned visit.

Secretary of Agriculture Clifford Hardin declared the VEE outbreak a national emergency.

Dr. R. E. Omohundro, assistant director of the animal health division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, will head the regional emergency headquarters. He said it will coordinate immunization of horses, mosquito abatement, disease diagnosis and the maintenance of quarantine.

He said enough doses of a new vaccine found effective in preventing the disease will be available by the end of the week for the approximately 1.5 million horses in the five states.

Authorities say fewer than 50 per cent of the horses who contract the disease survive. An afflicted horse typically runs a high temperature and begins to walk dazedly in an ever-diminishing circle until he collapses and dies after experiencing a violent spasm.

The disease produces flu-like symptoms in humans, and officials say 43 persons have been treated in the two South Texas counties where the outbreak has been concentrated. The disease is not considered serious for humans, and no vaccine is available.

Other items in the "incentive package" are believed to cover survivor benefits, medical and dental provisions, and possibly inclusion of Guardsmen and Reservists in GI mortgage insurance coverage now available to regular service veterans.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has promoted the Guard and Reserve in importance as he has moved to cut the size of the regular Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force.

In future crises, Laird has directed, the military establishment will call the Guard and Reserve to active duty first, rather than relying on the draft to meet emergency manpower needs as was done in the Vietnam war.

But Pentagon officials acknowledge it will be difficult to keep the ranks of the Guard and Reserve filled in peacetime, without the pressure of the draft.

All letters must be signed, with address so you are identified to the newspaper staff, but if the character of the letter permits we will allow use of a pen-name in the publication, in case you should add "Citizen," or some other word below your real name and address.

Pen-names are permitted when a letter deals only with issues. Direct attacks upon public officials, however, must bear the writer's name for publication.

Compliments Hope

Editor The Star: Do you often get letters with complaints? This letter isn't one of those—it's a letter of commendation for the people we met in your town when we were traveling through.

We stopped for breakfast at a cafeteria in Hope. The lady who served us was most kind when we told her we were having car trouble and gave us directions to the Lincoln-Mercury garage.

When we got to the garage, it was closed, being Saturday morning, but we talked to a man in the parking lot and explained our trouble. The gentleman was concerned enough towards strangers that he gave us directions to get to a garage at the edge of town that was open.

When we arrived at the garage—believe it was Wiley's—they were busy as could be, but Mr. Wiley, out of the goodness of his heart, took time to fix our car.

Do you know that when you are traveling, you don't meet this kind of people? I think Hope, Arkansas must be a grand place to live in if the people we met are a sample of its inhabitants. When strangers are treated so kindly and with such graciousness, it speaks well for the people of Hope.

So Hope, Arkansas, we thank you and maybe someday we can pass on to someone else your kindness.

ADOPTIVE BABIES SCARCE AND GETTING SCARCER

Dear Helen: Recently we contacted our Welfare Department to file application to adopt a little girl, perhaps twin girls. We also contacted Child and Family Services.

We were told that in our state, since we already have children (I'm unable to have more), we couldn't even file application. A new law says that only childless couples can adopt.

The reason: babies are in short supply, due to contraception, abortions, and the fact that more and more unmarried mothers are keeping their children.

We're trying now to adopt through a church orphanage, but this organization can only place about 50 babies a year throughout the state.

We haven't had much luck trying to adopt a little girl from overseas, either. Is there any hope? THE T.C. FAMILY
Dear T.C.s:

Your best hope lies with "special needs" children: mixed-race babies, those with birth defects, older youngsters. Adoption agencies in many states are placing such children in homes where they'll have ready-made brothers and sisters.

If you are interested in a transracial adoption, write to THE OPEN DOOR SOCIETY, Post Office Box 2447, San Diego, California, 92112, and enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for a brochure. —H.

Dear Helen:

About a year ago, after 20 years of marriage and six children, I put my husband out. We'd been fighting for six months and he gave every indication of running around. I loved him so much that each time he walked out the door, my heart was torn apart. But the yelling and arguments were making everyone miserable so, to save our sanity, I told him to go.

I still love him. Even though other men ask me out, I just can't go. Sometimes I think my husband still cares for me, and other times I'm sure he must hate me for the way I treated him.

I have too much pride to tell him, for if he turned away, I'd feel like such a fool. How can I find out what his feelings are? —ALONE AND SORRY
Dear A and S:

For Pete's sake, you lived with your husband 20 years and shared six children with him. If you can't manage one small "I'm sorry," how did you stay together so long? Anyone who has shared the closeness of marriage has "looked the fool" many times. Why let "pride" hold you back now, when so much is at stake? Call him! —H.

Dear Helen:

My husband was drafted into the Army a month before our baby was born, leaving me with very little money and lots of bills. My allotment just recently started, but it's only a little over $100, and my rent alone is $150 a month. At first the Red Cross was very helpful but, because my allotment came through, I'm afraid they can no longer give me aid. We're trying for a hardship discharge but, meanwhile, how am I going to live and support our month-old baby. I have no relatives close and can't borrow. Is there any hope? —SERVICE WIFE IN NEED

Dear Service Wife: I have contacted the Red Cross, and help is on the way. —H.

Dear Readers: "Service Wife" is one of thousands who just can't make it on Service allotments, even with the aid of food stamps. But soon Servicemen's pay will be raised. It's about time! —H.

Anne Baxter in "Applause"

NEW YORK (AP) — In the 1950 film "All About Eve," Anne Baxter played the unscrupulous ingenue Eve Harrington who schemed to use her friendship with a fictional star actress, Margo Channing, to become a star herself.

He says he'd love it if his book-writing career turns out to be successful enough so he never has to mess around with movies again—"so I never have to work with those crazy actors."

Axelrod says he learned to live with producers and studio bosses, but actors were impossible. Studio bosses were tough, but he could cope, as the following story illustrates.

"I was doing 'The Secret Life of an American Wife' for Darryl Zanuck," he says. "I made a pact with Zanuck—I'd bring the picture in under budget if he'd promise not to steal from me."

"Well, the first day, there was a bill from the studio for $450 for 'stationery.' I asked my secretary about it and she said that, yes, she'd

Tourists Well Pleased With State's Tourist Information Centers

Tourists visiting Arkansas for the first time express both surprise and appreciation when they stop at Tourist Information Centers at ports-of-entry into the state.

They are surprised at the facilities built and maintained by the Arkansas Highway Department, and staffed by Tourist Consultants who are employed and trained by the Travel Section of the Department of Parks and Tourism.

Immaculate grounds and sparkling, clean rest rooms provide the first surprise when travelers drop in for a rest. Most of the Centers even keep plastic bowls under the drinking fountains, for the convenience of tourists who bring their pets along. Many of the travelers also are surprised at the reception they get inside the Information Centers. Attractively-uniformed young women greet each newcomer, and ask if they can render any assistance.

In nine cases out of ten, the first request is for a new highway map, which features maps of major Arkansas cities on the back. These attractive and up-to-date maps are provided by the Highway Department.

At this point, the Arkansas Travel Consultants really start earning their money. Being well-versed in the many tourist attractions offered by this state, they immediately start showing points of interest along the traveler's intended route.

Literally scores of brochures and information leaflets, featuring private and public owned attractions, historical areas and state parks, are contained in their literature racks. These are passed out to each traveler, according to his preferences, without charge.

This service persuades a majority of the visitors to remain in Arkansas for a longer period than they had intended.

Some of our Tourist Information Centers have had a thousand or more visitors in a single day this summer. Hence,

Reception for Billie Sol Estes

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — The wife of Billie Sol Estes says he was "just really overwhelmed" by a reception at their home attended by about 600 friends and well-wishers.

Estes was released on parole last week after serving more than six years of a 15-year sentence to federal prison. He was convicted of fraud in connection with the collapse of his activities as a fertilizer magnate and farm financier.

"We know now we still have a lot of friends," Patsy Estes said Sunday. "They came from several states and some drove over 500 miles."

Nicol Williamson Is Married

LONDON (AP) — Actor Nicol Williamson, 34, and actress Jill Townsend, 26, have been married in a civil ceremony at the Chelsea Register office.

The ceremony Saturday was an informal affair with Williamson dressed in a short-sleeved white T-shirt with blue slacks. Miss Townsend wore a floral maxi-skirt, blouse and floppy sandals.

the Travel Consultants pass out hundreds of thousands of pamphlets each year, persuading our visitors to spend more time - and money - all over the state.

A sizable portion of Arkansas' revenues are generated by the travel industry. For instance, if a vacationer can be persuaded to visit enough spots off of his intended route to burn a tank of gas, Arkansas receives gasoline tax revenues of about $1.50. While burning this amount of fuel, the car's occupants likely are ready for refueling, also. This means that food vendors get a share of the tourists' dollars and will collect a 3 per cent sales tax for the state. Hopefully, the vendor has made a profit and a part of his payroll. The vendor's employees also pay taxes, to provide more income for the state.

Occupants of the thousands of cars entering Arkansas daily are persuaded to spend from one to several additional days - and dollars - in the Wonder State.

At present, Arkansas has six of these Tourist Information Centers in operation, and six more will be provided in the future. Centers are located on Interstate 30 near Texarkana, and Interstate 40 near Fort Smith-Van Buren. Each of them have five young women at work there this summer but, in September, as the tourist trade slackens, this number will be four at Texarkana and four in the Fort Smith area.

Three young women handle the tourists at Ashdown and Bella Vista on U.S. Highway 71, U.S. 67 at Corning and U.S. 167 near Junction City-El Dorado.

The seventh Center, on the Interstate near West Memphis, will open in September or October.

Since the first impression a traveler forms of an area is a lasting one, the Highway Department and the Department of Parks and Tourism are making every possible effort to make their first impressions favorable ones. From the comments of scores of tourists, these efforts have been highly successful.

These travelers say that the Arkansas Travel Consultants have the neatest uniforms they have seen. The state provides them, and supervisors make sure that the girls keep them clean and neat at all times.

Lucy, Desi Weep at Wedding

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, divorced since 1960, sat in her backyard garden and wept as they watched their daughter's wedding.

"I swore I wasn't going to cry," Miss Ball said after the ceremony Saturday, "but I couldn't help myself."

Arnaz, whose hair has whitened since the days when he costarred with Miss Ball on the "I Love Lucy" television series, said, "I couldn't stop crying."

Their daughter, Lucille Desirée Arnaz, was married on her 20th birthday to Philip Vandervort Menegaux, 26, a film producer.

Television and Radio

By JERRY BUCK

AP Television-Radio Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Godfrey Cambridge is a people-watcher and the people he watches often turn up in the characters he plays.

Cambridge stretched across the table and said, "I've seen these guys who come through my life. I've seen the guys who chew cigars and never take their hat off."

"I have to pattern my characters after people I know or people I've observed," he said. "I'm responsible for what goes on that screen. I've got to do my homework."

Cambridge, who shed 165 pounds in recent years, settled back into his chair and took another sip from the big, icy glass of orange juice.

In a two-part show for NBC's "Wonderful World of Disney," he plays Willie Dorsey, a man he describes as a "loveable rascal who manages by hustling and who makes it on his wits."

"I patterned Willie after two guys I know," Cambridge said. "One is a handyman. He's got a college degree, but he says to heck with it, I don't feel like teaching. So he's a handyman with an unlisted phone number and he's really found his satisfaction."

"And I patterned the role after an acquaintance I'll call Shifty. This guy always carries a Chicago bank roll—a $50 bill wrapped around a wad of ones. He says he never has change to pay for anything and he's always taking me over the coals."

Cambridge plays a veteran who uses his mustering out pay to buy a service station—but doesn't have enough money left to stock any gas. He has to talk his customers out of buying gas.

For his role as Grave Digger Jones in "Cotton Comes to Harlem," he spent 16-hours-a-day at the 28th Precinct in Harlem watching policemen and accompanying them on calls.

"In 'Cotton' I never took off my hat. I picked that up from one of the detectives," he said. "I asked him why and he said it was because he was always going in and out of places."

"I wanted to wear cufflinks, but the costume designer said, no, that's too fancy. So one detective I was with made an arrest and he was furious with the guy for breaking his cufflinks. I wore cufflinks."

Wants Ball Team in Fort Smith

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Carl Sawatski, general manager of the Arkansas Travelers, says professional baseball in Arkansas would benefit from the location of a Texas League team in Fort Smith.

"If Fort Smith could handle a AA team, it would be a great rivalry for the Travelers," Sawatski said. "It would certainly create more interest in baseball in the state."

Sawatski made the remarks when questioned about a statement by Texas League President Bobby Bragan that Fort Smith is one of several cities being considered for a TL franchise.

Bragan is to meet Tuesday with Fort Smith officials.

"Fort Smith is a very strategic location geographically and has had a history of solidly supporting baseball," Bragan was quoted as saying Saturday. "I like what I hear about the city and it meets with our plan to consolidate eastward instead of westward."

This year, seven Texas League clubs and seven Southern League teams joined forces to form the Dixie Association. Officials of the Southern League voted recently to break the league's tie with the Dixie Association at the completion of the current season.

Sawatski says it is possible Dallas-Fort Worth and Albuquerque will leave the Texas League next year—Dallas-Fort Worth to the major leagues and Albuquerque to Class AAA.

Sawatski said it was his guess that if Dallas-Fort Worth does receive a major league franchise the team would keep a team in the Texas League, possibly in southeast Texas. He said that if Albuquerque goes AAA it is likely that the Los Angeles Dodgers would move their working agreement to El Paso.

Sawatski said that under these circumstances the Texas League would need to add only one other franchise to have an eight-team league.

"Things actually look better now than they did two years ago," he said. "I see no reason why we can't have eight teams next year and have a couple of other teams waiting in the wings."

Sawatski said he suggested Fort Smith as a possible TL site after Bragan asked for suggestions. Other possibilities are Lubbock, Wichita Falls and Corpus Christi, Tex., and Alexandria and Monroe, La.

Sawatski said he doubted that Fort Smith would be ready to participate next year.

"It usually takes a couple of years to get people interested and get the facilities in shape," he said. "Geographically it would be a great league with Memphis, Little Rock, Shreveport and Fort Smith."

The Travelers drew about 120,000 persons and Sawatski says a team needs to draw 90,000 persons a year to break even. There are more than 250,000 persons in the Little Rock area and about 80,000 in the Fort Smith area.

Fort Smith Mayor Jack Freeze said he was surprised to hear that the Texas League was considering his city.

"My first reaction was that the fact that they were considering us is nice," Freeze said. He said, however, he did not think the franchise would have much of a chance of surviving.

"Personally, I don't want to have any money in it," he

A's Downed by Orioles; 7-3 Score

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Brooks Robinson expects the Oakland A's to be one of the teams in the American League playoffs, but he's not so sure about his injury-walloped Baltimore Orioles.

"If we make it," says Baltimore's slick third baseman, "then we'll be playing Oakland all right. They've got too many good players not to win."

Robinson is doing his best, though, to help the Birds nail down an East Division berth against the West Division champion this fall.

His fielding has been impeccable, as usual, and Sunday he made up for the Orioles' loss of power hitters Frank Robinson and Boog Powell by blasting a grand slam home run in a 7-3 triumph over the A's.

"I can't remember the last time I hit a grand slam homer," said Robinson.

It was the fifth career slam for Robby, whose hitting is usually overshadowed by his fielding exploits.

The New York Yankees swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox, 3-2 and 6-1; the Washington Senators trimmed the Minnesota Twins 3-2; the Milwaukee Brewers nipped the Boston Red Sox 5-4; the Kansas City Royals took a pair from the Detroit Tigers, 8-2 and 4-3 in 10 innings and California turned back Cleveland 3-1.

In the National League, Pittsburgh swept a pair from Los Angeles, 3-2 and 7-1; Chicago walloped Montreal 8-4; St. Louis stopped New York 8-5; Philadelphia took Houston 1-0 in the first game of a doubleheader before losing the second, 10-7; San Francisco beat Atlanta 5-4 in 12 innings in the opener of their twin bill and the Braves took the nightcap 4-2 and Cincinnati topped San Diego 3-0 in the 5½-inning, rain-shortened first game of a twin bill.

Robinson's blast, his 11th homer of the year, came off Oakland's John "Blue Moon" Odom and highlighted a seven-run Baltimore fifth that put the game away.

Bobby Murcer delivered a tying, two-run single and Ron Swoboda, the game-winning single as New York rallied for three runs to win the opener over Chicago.

Mike Kekich spun a one-hitter—Mike Andrews' fifth-inning home run—to pace the Yankees' second-game success. The one-hitter was the second of Kekich's career, the other coming with Los Angeles in the National League.

Roy White slammed a two-run homer and double and stole home to lead the Yankees' offense in the nightcap.

Rookie Toby Harrah raced home for third on a rundown play in the bottom of the ninth inning to lift Washington over Minnesota. The Senators trailed 2-1 going into the ninth before rallying for the two deciding runs.

With Dave Nelson and Harrah on first and second with successive singles, Elliott Maddox smashed a third consecutive single to left, scoring Nelson and tying the game 2-2. Harrah went to third on the play and when the Twins had Maddox trapped between first and second, Harrah broke for home and beat second baseman Rod Carew's throw to the plate.

Andy Kosco drove in two decisive runs with a sixth-inning homer and a run-scoring single in the ninth for Milwaukee. Boston, trailing 5-2, came back with solo home runs by Rico Petrocelli and George Scott in the last half of the ninth before reliever Ken Sanders got the final out.

Lou Piniella blasted a three-run, first-inning homer to pace Kansas City's first-game triumph. Gail Hopkins drove in the winning run with a single in the 10th to provide the Royals with a sweep.

Ken McMullen snapped a tie with a two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to pull California over Cleveland.

Crampton Wins $30,000 Western Open

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Bruce Crampton, 35-year-old Australian, is a philosophical golfer who believes if you are destined to win a tournament, you will do it, no matter what.

He was in four traps, missed seven fairways with his tee shots and was among trees about as much as a lumberjack Sunday—but he won the Western Open Golf Championship and its $30,000 award. A closing 34-37—71 for a five-under-par 279 did it.

The slightly-built but sturdy Aussie, who forsook his parents' wishes that he become a tennis player like himself, how has won 10 tournaments since coming to these shores in 1957 and has passed a half million dollars in winnings.

The Western, however, was his first victory since taking the $50,000 jackpot in the Westchester Open a year ago. His best finish previously this season was third in the recent Milwaukee Open.

In the next month and a half, Crampton will have shots at a pair of $50,000 winning plums.

He defends his title in the $250,000 Westchester—richest tourney in the world—this week. And by winning the Western, he qualified for the World Series of Golf in Akron in September, playing for the $50,000 first prize against Lee Trevino, the U.S., Canadian and British open king; Jack Nicklaus, the PGA champ, and Charles Coody, the Masters winner.

"I'm all excited about this victory and will get a lot of calls from friends here and abroad," said Crampton.

"When this phase passes, then I'll be ready mentally to take on Westchester."

"As for winning it again—I just don't know. But Super Mex kept winning and maybe Super Kangaroo can, too."

Crampton referred to Trevino and his fantastic victory streak in the last month. Trevino cooled off at Olympia Fields, however, closing with a 70 for 291 and a share of 32nd place.

He won $870 and gave his caddy $200.

Bobby Nichols skidded to a 38 on the front side and came back strongly before bogeying the 17th to close with 35 for a

Namath On Time This Year

By EARL GERHEIM
Associated Press Sports Writer
Quarterback Joe Namath was late the last two years he checked into the New York Jets' training camp. He was on time Sunday, saying his crippled knees felt fine but complained the wrist he broke last year was not fully healed.

Two years ago he was late for camp because of an imbroglio with National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle over Namath's connection with the Bachelors III nightclub.

Last year he was tardy due to "personal problems."

Sporting his usual mod hairstyle, Broadway Joe said he would have to fashion a proper mental attitude about the ailing wrist that sidelined him for the last 10 games of 1970.

Namath said he was fearful the occasional pain may hamper his throwing motion, but added: "When you're out there throwing in a game, there are so many things on your mind you don't think of it."

Namath suited up for a brisk 20-minute workout and rifled several passes without difficulty after he and 22 other veterans arrived at the Jets' training site at Hofstra University in Hempstead, N.Y.

Meanwhile, Cleveland Browns coach Nick Skorich was concerned about developing a winning attitude among his returning veterans. He told the players he was dissatisfied with last year's 7-7 record and said he wanted back on the victory side of the ledger.

Los Angeles Rams coach Tommy Prothro gave his charges Sunday morning off but announced the team will return to two-day workouts Monday. Jerry Gordon, former Auburn offensive tackle, became the fifth Ram to leave camp voluntarily. The Pittsburgh Steelers cut Arizona State Quarterback Joe Spagnola along with rookies, tight end

BASEBALLLOGY

An open stance, the batter's left foot away from the plate and toward third base if he's righthanded, is a euphemism for the old foot-in-the-bucket move. It used to mean that the batter was trying to bail out or move as far away from the pitcher as he could and still remain within the legal confines of the diamond.

And then along came Al Simmons, a Hall of Fame outfielder with the old Philadelphia Athletics. Putting his foot in the bucket was part of his batting style and didn't take away from his power or hitting frequency. Among the moderns, Willie Mays has usually hit with a fairly open stance, though certainly not as pronounced as that of Simmons. Roberto Clemente of the Pirates is in the same groove.

One school of baseball thought even maintains that standing with the lead foot pointed to third base—Gil McDougald of the Yankees was an extreme disciple—gives the batter a wider field of vision. He then can adjust his stride into the ball according to the pitch and where he wants to hit it.

Of course, when a batter is intimidated by a pitcher, the first symptom is putting his foot in the bucket as a natural reaction in ducking away from the plate.

to become the first hurler to throw a no-hitter in Pittsburgh since the Pirates' Nicholas Maddox did it against the Brooklyn Dodgers on Sept. 20, 1907 in a 2-1 victory at old Exposition Park, had allowed only three baserunners until Ferguson slammed the first pitch in the ninth over the left field wall for his first major league homer.

The Pirates moved into Forbes Field on June 30, 1969, and a no-hit game never was pitched there in 61 years. They moved into Three Rivers Stadium on July 16, 1970.

Walker's victory, his first since June 23 and his first complete game since April 8, raised his record to 4-7.

In the opener, the Pirates broke a 2-2 tie in the ninth when Gene Alley led off with a triple, held third while Renaldo Stennett beat out an infield hit and Bill Mazeroski was intentionally walked and raced home with the winning run on Gene Clines' bounce to second base.

Cubs' rookie Ray Newman pitched perfect relief over the last five innings and gained his first major league victory as Chicago pounded Montreal with a 17-hit barrage. The Cubs snapped a 4-4 tie in the bottom of the fifth, with Ron Santo's single delivering one run and Jim Hickman's sacrifice fly driving in another. Don Kessinger and Glenn Beckert singled in insurance runs in the eighth.

Dick Dietz, who had doubled in the eighth and scored the tying run on Ken Henderson's double, won the opener for the Giants with a 12th inning homer off Atlanta's Bob Priddy. Four San Francisco relievers combined to retire the last 19 Braves' batters.

In the nightcap, the Braves built an early 4-0 lead, then held on despite Willie May's two-run homer, the 643rd of his career. A three-base error by Henderson in the fifth cost the Giants two runs.

The split enabled the Giants to increase their West lead over Los Angeles to seven games.

Philadelphia rookie Ken Reynolds stymied Houston on four hits in the opener and got the only run he needed in the first inning on singles by Denny Doyle, Larry Bowa and Willie Montanez. Hard-luck loser Don Wilson allowed only five hits.

In the second game, Jim Wynn, Doug Rader, and pitcher Wade Blasingame and Jesus Alou each drove in two runs as Houston amassed an early 8-0 lead and was able to survive a seven-run Philadelphia fifth, highlighted by Deron Johnson's three-run homer.

St. Louis, climbing into third place in the East ahead of the Mets, beat New York with a four-run seventh. Ted Simmons' infield hit with the bases loaded broke a 4-4 tie, then Joe Torre followed with a bases-clearing double. The setback was the Mets 14th in 16 games.

Rookie Ross Grimsley limited San Diego to three hits and Pat Corrales belted a two-run single in the Reds' abbreviated game against San Diego. The second game, of course, was rained out and will be made up next month.

Pittsburgh 7-1 Over Los Angeles

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer
Luke Walker walked into the Pirates' locker room after having come within three outs of hurling the first no-hitter in Pittsburgh in 64 years.

Steve Blass, another member of the Pirates' underrated pitching staff and the club's top comedian, shouted across the crowded room, "Walker, I know the solution for you—start you every three weeks."

It was meant to be funny, but it wasn't to Walker. The 27-year-old left-hander, the Pirates' best winner last season with 15 victories, hadn't started a game since June 29, until he faced the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday.

Walker enhanced his chances of regaining a regular starting berth—and nearly pitched himself into the record books—handcuffing the Dodgers on one hit—Joe Ferguson's leadoff homer in the ninth—as the Pirates completed a doubleheader sweep with a 7-1 victory, extending their winning streak to 11 games—longest in the majors this season.

The Pirates, who increased their National League East lead to 11½ games over second-place Chicago, won the opener 3-2.

Elsewhere in the National League, Chicago trimmed Montreal 8-4; St. Louis dropped the staggering New York Mets 8-5; San Francisco split with Atlanta, winning the opener 5-4 in 12 innings and losing the nightcap 4-2; Philadelphia and Houston also divided, the Phillies taking the first game 1-0 and the Astros winning the second game 10-7, and Cincinnati blanked San Diego 3-0 in their 5½-inning rain-shortened opener of a scheduled twinbill.

In the American League, New York swept a doubleheader from Chicago, 3-2 and 6-1; Milwaukee edged Boston 5-4; Baltimore trounced Oakland 7-3; Washington shaded Minnesota 3-2; Kansas City beat Detroit twice, 8-2 and 4-3 in 10 innings and California beat Cleveland 3-1.

Walker had no regrets about losing his no-hitter and Ferguson had no remorse about breaking it up.

"Sure, I've dreamed of a no-hitter," said Walker. "I'm sure every pitcher does. But there's nothing to feel bad about. If his homer had won it, then it would have hurt."

Ack Ack Wins H'wood Gold Cup

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
The perfect diet for a man like Charlie Whittingham, who worries about weight, is a thoroughbred who runs like Ack Ack.

Trainer Whittingham worried for most of last week about the 134 pounds assigned to Ack Ack for the $175,000 Hollywood Gold Cup and didn't decide to run him until just few hours before the invitational race Saturday.

Ack Ack won the 1¼-mile race at Hollywood Park by 3¼ lengths over Comtal for his seventh straight stakes win and the 19th victory in 27 career starts which also include six seconds.

In earning first money of $100,000 for the Forked Lightning Ranch of Buddy Fogelson and his actress wife, Greer Garson, Ack Ack ran the distance in 1:59 4-5 under Bill Shoemaker and paid $2.80. The 134 pounds was the highest weight ever carried by a winner in 37 Gold Cups and was 23 pounds more than Comtal carried and 17 more than the mare Manta.

Two other Whittingham stars, Mary F. Jones' Cougar II and Burt Bacharach's Advance Guard were scratched.

Mrs. W.R. Kelly's Jontilla didn't have it as easy as Ack Ack in winning the richest race in the East Saturday—the $115,600 Amory L. Haskell Handicap at Monmouth Park.

Jontilla, ridden by John Gioianni and carrying 115 pounds, won a bitter stretch duel from Never Bow, 122, for a three-quarter length victory, with Pass Catcher, 113, the Belmont Stakes winner and only 3-year-old in the race, third.

Jontilla ran the 1¼ miles in 2:01 and paid $11.20.

William A. Levin's Bold Reason, winner of the Hollywood Derby on the dirt July 3, won the $56,400 Lexington Handicap for 3-year-olds on the grass at Aqueduct by three lengths over Gleaming, with Northfields third.

The victory was the fourth straight for Bold Reason, 120, pounds and John L. Rotz and snapped a string of three straight grass stakes triumphs for Calumet Farm's Gleaming, high-weighted at 126. Bold Reason was timed in 1:54 4-5 for the 1 3-16 miles and paid $6.40.

Three-year-old fillies were featured at Liberty Bell Park in the $55,800 Cotillion Handicap, with East Acres' Alma North, 118, winning by a length over Forward Gal, 123. Miss Pat R., 110, was third at the end of the 1 1-16 miles timed in 1:43 3-5. Out Cheri Amour was scratched.

500 Greet New Miss Arkansas

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A crowd of about 500 persons greeted the new Miss Arkansas, Marilyn Morgan, 19, on the lawn of the Johnson County Courthouse here Sunday night. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan of near Clarksville, she was crowned Saturday night in Hot Springs. Miss Morgan and her parents drove to Clarksville from Hot Springs in the car given by a Little Rock car dealer and were escorted to the courthouse by a State Police trooper. With tears in her eyes, she told those at the courthouse she hoped to "live up to" their expectations.

Energy Demands Studied

By JOHN H. KAMPS Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Interior Committee is gearing for a two-year study of the nation's rapidly expanding energy demands and its dwindling natural resources with an eye toward setting U.S. policy for the next half-century. Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., committee chairman, said the panel hopes to hold hearings many of them open, and then to propose a long-range national fuels and energy program. William J. Van Ness, a committee staff member who will direct the investigation, said the $400,000 study is expected to cover two major periods—from now until 1980 and from 1980 to 2020. The range of policy options for this decade is considered limited because of the long lead time needed for construction, corporate planning and research and development of new energy technology, Van Ness said. Witnesses at hearings on the resolution that authorized the study predicted acute shortages of some fuels and energy in the face of growing demands from a booming population growth. Fuel and energy consumption will increase more than 200 per cent by the year 2000, some witnesses said. In a report recommending authorization of the study, the committee said: "Historically the United States has had more than adequate supplies of diverse and competitive energy resources. In recent years, however, there have been numerous examples of failure in supplying all of the energy which the country requires," the report added. "Blackouts resulting from the failure of electrical energy supply have increased sharply." It said, "Some natural gas distribution companies are unable to supply all new customers, dependence upon oil imports is increasing and natural gas reserves are declining."

Miss Ark. Prepared Not to Win

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Marilyn Morgan, 19, the third consecutive State College of Arkansas coed to be named Miss Arkansas, told newsmen Sunday she had prepared herself mentally not to win. After being crowned Saturday night she was asked by newsmen Sunday for her reaction to winning the title. "Goodness, it just feels great," she said. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Morgan Jr., who have a 500-acre farm near Clarksville.

The new Miss Arkansas is a junior majoring in home economics and has a 3.85 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. She is a member of Delta Zeta social sorority at SCA and the Association of Christian Students.

"I love God and God loves me and God loves you and that's all you need to know," she told newsmen Sunday. Miss Morgan said she will probably sing the same selection she performed in the state contest, "Something," at the Miss America Pageant this fall. Pat Gideon of Fayetteville, who competed as Miss Washington County, was named first-runner up.

The second runner-up was Linda St. John of Batesville, Miss Arkansas Valley. Third runner-up was Lynn Boles of Camden, Miss Henderson State College, and fourth runner-up was Neena Troupe of Hot Springs, Miss Hot Springs. Among the ten semi-finalists were Lara Boyles of Augusta, Miss Arkansas State University; Bonnie Gean Cate of Texarkana, Miss Texarkana; Debbie Cardwell of Jacksonville, Miss Jacksonville; Margie Collie of Mountain Home, Miss Twin Lakes, and Amelia Skinner of North Little Rock, Miss State College of Arkansas.

The blacks said they attempted to report "everything" to Langston but that Adams broke up the meeting. "County Judge Adams rushed into the sheriff's office shouting profanity at Neal and Cheeks and telling them to get out," the two blacks said. "The sheriff told Neal and Cheeks to leave and go to see (the Marianna police chief) regarding a warrant for Judge Adams."

"Judge Adams then pulled a small pistol from his pocket and shouted profanity at Neal and Cheeks, saying that he would kill them and he was 'tired of the lying, conniving sons of a bitches'."

Langston said Adams drew a .38-caliber pistol from his pocket but that he never aimed the gun at anyone. Adams testified that he began carrying a gun "about two weeks ago" because he had received three telephone threats on his life. Adams denied that he shouted threats to "kill them." He said that he did not point the weapon.

Iraq Breaks Ties With Jordan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Iraq broke diplomatic relations with Jordan Sunday as King Hussein's army pushed ahead with its mopping of Palestinian guerrillas. Sudan also denounced Jordanian repression of the guerrillas, and a Cairo newspaper accused Hussein of being "an obedient tool" for the Israelis.

Both Iraq and Sudan appealed to other Arab nations to isolate Jordan. But there was no official statement from Egypt, where President Anwar Sadat has been trying to mediate the Jordanian conflict and avoid further divisions in the Arab world. Iraq is the second Arab government to sever relations with Jordan. Libya recalled its diplomats from Amman at the height of Jordan's civil war last September, after Hussein decided he had to control the guerrillas or be overthrown. A Jordanian military spokesman said the army had pinned down the remnants of small guerrilla bands in northern Jordan.

At least 50 of the Palestinians fled into Israel and surrendered. The Jordanian spokesman said they were infiltrators trained by Israel who were returning "to their masters." But a guerrilla official in Beirut said they were forced to flee because of many wounded, lack of water and constant shelling by the army. The army spokesman said about 100 soldiers had been killed in six days of fighting, and he estimated guerrilla losses at more than 200. About 500 surviving guerrillas were pushed into four new positions on exposed slopes between the Jordan River cease-fire line with Israel and the rocky heights overlooking the river valley. The Jordanian government said 800 others were taken prisoner and about 1,000 fled to Syria. Confident it had gained control, Hussein's government announced it would no longer recognize the Cairo agreement worked out during the September fighting by Arab mediators. The pact regulated relations between the guerrillas and the government and stated where the commandos could place their men and arms. The Iraqi government called on the Arab world to join in political and economic sanctions against Jordan "to stop the current massacre of the Palestinian resistance movement." The Sudanese Foreign Ministry said the Jordanian army's campaign against the guerrillas was "a very serious development which should not be tolerated."
